

A Winterstory

By: Edvin

Once upon a time Santa Claus had much to do with the presents. He and Mrs Claus had to eat porridge before they worked with the presents. After they ate Santa wrapped the presents and took the reindeer to go and give the children presents.

In the middle of the night he climbed down the chimney to a Christmas tree. But he saw a child. The boy ran up to his parents and shouted "Wake up". Santa ran up to the reindeer and flew away. When he came to the next house he saw a house where his favourite child lived. He is very smart in Maths, English and Geographics. He left a big Lego Star Wars for him and a Barbie doll for his sister. After he had left all the presents, he went home and ate his Christmas dinner. When the child woke up in the morning, he ran to his parents and said "Merry Christmas". Then he walked back to the Christmas tree.

Mrs Claus walked to the reindeer and tried to take him to the stable. But the reindeer did not want go into the stable. He wanted to save the world. He and Santa Claus rode to Egypt where they saw a magician, who wanted to destroy the world. Santa became very angry. The magician didn't care. He wanted to rule the world. Santa caught the magician and put him in prison.

When Santa Claus came back home again, he live happily ever after together with Mrs Claus.
